Preparation or service of food requires at least one State of Illinois Certified Manager who is the supervisor of food preparation. Preparation or service of food requiring more than four hours before service, requiring extensive or complicated steps in food preparation, or the presence of hazardous conditions, requires a certified manager on each shift. Each certified manager's state certificate must be posted at the establishment in order to be valid, and is only valid for that establishment. If the certificate was lost a replacement can be requested from the state. A certified manager must be a person who is routinely present during food preparation operations.

Establishment Classification

Please identify your risk level on the following categories. These categories are not meant to imply that any given establishment is less safe than others.

- Class 1A High Risk (1 department) $400
 - Cooling of potentially hazardous food (PHF).
 - Preparing and holding food for more than 12 hours before serving.
 - Extensive handling of raw ingredients and hand contact with ready-to-eat food.
 - Reheating previously cooked and cooled PHF.
 - Preparing food for off-site service.
 - Vacuum packaging.
 - Serving of immunocompromised individuals (majority).
- Class 1B High Risk (2 or more department) $400 + $200 each additional department
(Same as class 1A)
- Class 2 Medium Risk $300
 - Preparing food for service from raw ingredients using minimal assembly.
 - Hot or cold is restricted to same-day service.
 - Food requiring complex preparation is obtained from approved processing establishment.
- Class 3 Low Risk $200
 - Only prepackaged food is served.
 - PHF is commercially prepackaged.
 - Limited preparation of non-PHF and beverages.
 - Only beverages are served.
- Tax Supported Organization – Fee Waiver
(Also check the appropriate Class in which your establishment falls under)

This application is valid for the permit type specified and for the business name and owner(s) listed. The applicant's signature verifies that this submitted application is accurate.
